

Sex. (women)

God of love, who knows me deeply and intimately,
I chase after love and affection, though only You know how to provide it. I act like Your love is not enough to satisfy me, but You know me better than any person can. My heart aches to be wanted, cherished, held, only to be repeatedly disappointed. Feeling alone, I wonder why romance looms so far beyond my reach.

The truth is You made me for Yourself, and You love me passionately. You designed my sexuality and declared it as good; You made me as more than a body, but as a mind, a soul, and a spirit, with the wonderful, creative gift of my love. You made me to want to love and thereby glimpse the enormity of Your love for me.

I pray that You would teach me to love. Show me the nature of creative love in all my relationships. Forgive my self-focus and let me love with a joyful heart.
